

Celebrate Persian New Year

- Takdis: Persian sweet & sour candy
- Eidy (New Year Spending Money - $10 Amazon gift card): Money to spend toward something new
- Sekke (Coins - bag of milk chocolate coins): One of the items that each family sets out on their table to symbolize their hopes and wishes for the new year. They also represent the hope for prosperity.
- Sabzeh (Green Plant): One of the items that each family sets out on their table to symbolize the hope of growth and new beginnings.

Celebrate Chinese New Year

These craft kits were made in honor of the Lantern Festival, which traditionally marks the end of the Chinese New Year. It is celebrated on the 15th day of the first Chinese lunar month. Along with these kits, a traditional Chinese New Year meal from Bo Ling's was also provided. Below are some details about this celebration.

- DIY Chinese Lantern craft kits, with step-by-step instructions and all the supplies needed (red paper, yellow ribbon, tape and scissors)
- Information sheet including important Chinese New Year facts and traditional dishes served for dinner by Bo Ling's

Celebrate Dia De Reyes

These kits for families were created to celebrate Día de los Reyes, Three Kings Day or Epiphany, which occurs annually on January 6. The volunteer group also brought La Rosca de Reyes, a traditional sweet bread to share with the families staying at RMHC-KC. Below are the items included in the goodie bags.

- Decorate your own crown craft - includes stickers and glitter pens
- Snacks and candy
- Various small gifts for kids

Celebrate Eid al-Fitr

Celebrating Eid al-Fitr with one of our guest families who observed this special occasion was truly meaningful. This holiday, which marks the conclusion of Ramadan, the sacred month of fasting in Islam, holds deep significance.

To honor their traditions, we arranged delicious halal meals from Haha's Kebabs and Shawarma, a local restaurant known for its authentic offerings.

Celebrate La Posada

Our amazing friends from Mulher Magazine and the Kansas City Hispanic Community organize an annual Posada celebration for the families at RMHC-KC. In previous years, we've had Mariachi Estrella KC perform, along with a pinata for the kids and a delicious tamale dinner.

It is so special for us to honor and celebrate this Hispanic Christmas tradition, especially while we have many Hispanic families staying with us at the Ronald McDonald House.

Celebrate Hanukkah

In honor of Hanukkah, one of our Jewish staff members hosted an activity night for the families. The event included Hanukkah themed cookie decorating, dreidel games, crafts and challah bread from Bloom Baking Co. as a special treat!

Celebrate Lunar New Year

In honor of Lunar New Year, we collaborated with Smoke N Seoul food truck to provide a Korean BBQ lunch for our guest families and staff.

Celebrate AAPI Heritage Month

In celebration of Asian American Pacific Islanders Heritage (AAPI) Month in May, we had Cafe Caphe come and serve Vietnamese coffee for our guest families and staff. We also had donuts from Mr. D's, another AAPI-owned local business.

Celebrate Kwanzaa

In honor of Kwanzaa, Geico Philanthropic Foundation provided a traditional meal of chicken & sausage jambalaya with sauteed zucchini and sweet potatoes from Love is Key, a local black owned restaurant.
